PRESS RELEASE

I. DATE AND TIME OF PRESS RELEASE: January 15, 2009

II. TYPE OF INCIDENT/SITUATION/ANNOUNCEMENT:
"Drug Trends in Livermore" community education presentation offered by the Livermore Police Department in cooperation with the Livermore Police Department Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association (CPAAA) and the Livermore Area Recreation and Parks District (LARPD)

III. FACTUAL INFORMATION:
The CPAAA is proud to announce the next community education presentation, "Drug Trends in Livermore" to be held at the Robert Livermore Community Center, 4444 East Avenue on Wednesday, January 28th at 7:00 p.m. The presentation will be made by Sergeant Jim Conley who has extensive experience in narcotics enforcement.

Sergeant Conley will be discussing a variety of topics related to illegal drugs. Current drug trends, signs of influence, drug identification, drug paraphernalia identification and intervention will be covered. What signs to look for if you believe a family member is using illegal drugs? There will be an opportunity for the audience to ask questions of Sergeant Conley and to share drug related concerns.

"Any opportunity to spend time with community members discussing drug problems is an opportunity to provide education and guidance" said Sgt. Conley. "I know it is important that our community members learn about the types of drugs that are prevalent in our area and what we are doing to combat them. Parents need to be aware of current drug trends and how to be aware of warning signs that their children may be using drugs."

Reservations are required, as seating is limited to the first 70 registrants. To register for the class, please call LARPD at 373-5700.

Questions about this presentation can be directed to Sgt. Jim Conley at 925-371-4900.
