PRESS RELEASE

I. DATE AND TIME OF PRESS RELEASE:
March 10, 2012, 4:00 PM

II. TYPE OF INCIDENT/SITUATION/ANNOUNCEMENT:
Suspicious Circumstance - Possible Attempted Child Abduction

III. FACTUAL INFORMATION:
On March 10, 2012, about 12:15 PM, a lone male suspect walked into the child care center at the Livermore Valley Tennis Club (LVTC), 2000 Arroyo Road, Livermore. The suspect told the LVTC child care employee that he was there to pick up his son, and pointed to a 4-year-old boy in the childcare center. The employee asked the suspect for the standard verification required by LVTC to pickup children from the child care center. The suspect was unable to produce the verification and abruptly left.

LVTC staff later determined that the boy's mother, who was on site at the time of occurrence, had not given anyone authorization to pick up the boy. LVTC staff then notified police.

Police searched the area, but were unable to locate the suspect.

A witness assisted Livermore police in completing the attached composite sketch of the suspect.

No further details are available at this time.
