LIVERMORE
CALIFORNIA

PRESS RELEASE

I. DATE OF PRESS RELEASE: January 15, 2014

II. INCIDENT: (UPDATE) Injury Collision in Livermore

III. FACTUAL INFORMATION:

Through the Livermore Police Department's investigative efforts, the driver of the Toyota Tacoma pickup was located. The driver, Bert Rosenthal, a 53 year old San Jose resident was charged by the Alameda County District Attorney's Office with two felony counts of hit and run (20001 V.C.) Rosenthal's vehicle was located and had damage consistent with the collision.

On 1-15-14, Livermore Police Officers arrested Rosenthal at his home. Rosenthal was transported to Santa Rita Jail, where he is being held on $100,000 bail.

Prior Press Release-

On January 6th 2014, at 6:24am the Livermore Police Department responded to an injury collision on State Route 84 (Vallecitos Rd.) just north of the main entrance of Ruby Hills.

A vehicle similar to a dark colored Toyota Tacoma pickup collided with a black Honda Civic on N/B Vallecitos Rd. just north of Ruby Hills.

The right front bumper of the pickup sideswiped the left rear of the Honda causing the driver of the Honda to lose control. The Honda slid sideways into oncoming traffic. A Jeep traveling in the S/B direction of Isabel Ave. struck the passenger side of the Honda causing serious injuries to both drivers.

The driver of the pickup did not stop and continued N/B on Isabel Ave.

The Livermore Police Department is seeking the community's assistance in locating any possible witnesses to the collision. If anyone has information about this case, they are encouraged to call Officer Traci Rebiejo at (925) 580-9665.