

I. DATE AND TIME August 26, 2010 @ 4:30 p.m.

II. TYPE OF INCIDENT/SITUATION/ANNOUNCEMENT:

Arrest of a suspect for possession and distribution of child pornography

III. FACTUAL INFORMATION:

On Thursday August 26, 2010, the Livermore Police Department conducted an investigation, which culminated with the service of a search warrant on David Garrison (DOB: 04/06/65) and his residence located at 1664 Altamar Way. After the search warrant was executed, Garrison was arrested on suspicion of possessing and distributing child pornography. During a cursory examination of Garrison's computer, Detectives located several graphic child pornography images in violation of Penal Code section 311.11(a) and 311.1 (a). Upon further investigation, it was discovered that Garrison was a head coach of a Livermore Youth Soccer League soccer team. Garrison was arrested and transported to Santa Rita Jail for his possession and distribution of harmful matter.

We would encourage anyone with additional information about this case to contact Sergeant Paul Mayer at the Livermore Police Department at (925) 371-4733.
