Investigators have learned that on March 4, 2010, about 9:00 p.m., Olivia Aguirre checked herself into a Sacramento area medical facility. At this time, investigators are attempting to determine why Olivia was missing. Another press release will be distributed once more information is known.

On March 1, 2010, Olivia Aguirre was reported missing by her family. Aguirre left home on the morning of 3-1-2010, leaving her 3 ½ year old child in the care of her mother. She told her mother she had to go to the store and would be back in a few minutes. When Aguirre left, she borrowed her mother's car, described below. Aguirre never returned home and she has not contacted any of her family, friends or called to check on her child. Calls to Aguirre's cellular phone have gone unanswered.

Aguirre has a history of medical conditions and without treatment may suffer a stroke or heart attack according to the family.

Aguirre always wears distinctive head scarves to conceal her short hair which is growing back due to the treatments she has received.
