U.S. Commercial Service

The U.S. Commercial Service is part of the U.S. Department of Commerce, an agency of the United States government.

Our Mission:

To maintain and create jobs in the United States by helping small- and medium-sized U.S. companies to expand their export sales.

- With a focus on small- and medium-sized enterprises, NEI comprises of 3 main pillars
 1. Expansion of trade advocacy and promotion efforts
 2. Improving access to export financing
 3. Improving access to foreign markets for American companies

“Increasing the export of American products and services to global markets can help revive the fortunes of U.S. companies, spur future economic growth and support jobs here at home,”.

Hong Kong Wine Market

Zero-Tax Policy

- Abolished its 40% excise tax on wine in February of 2008
 - Makes HK one of the only tax free wine markets in the world
 - Led to a surge of 250% in US wine exports to HK
- Wine imports:
 - 19% re-exported
 - 81% retained for local consumption

Graph illustrates the impact of the elimination of the wine tax on HK wine imports

Hong Kong Wine Statistics

- ❑ Currently, Hong Kong is the third largest market for US wine export (HS Code 220421), after the UK and Canada
 - HK imports of US wine in 2009 were US$40 million (up 138% over 2008)
 - For the first 5 months of 2010, these imports reached US$21.8 million (up 113% over the same period in 2009)
- ❑ Hong Kong consumers prefer red wine to white wine
 - Red wine constituted 94.5% of total wine imports (US$464 million)
 - Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, and Shiraz are the three most popular grape varieties
- ❑ Retail markets, such as supermarkets, specialty stores and convenience stores, account for about 60% of wine sales in terms of volume

U.S.- Hong Kong MOU on Cooperation in Wine-Related Business

- ❑ To promote:
 - Trade development and investment in the wine industry
 - Business visits, exhibitions, and wine-related trade fairs
 - Related education and training
 - Wine-related tourism
 - Cuisine and wine culture

- ❑ Boosts cooperation in combating trade in counterfeit wine and smuggling of wine

Former Secretary of Commerce and now U.S. Ambassador to China Gary Locke signed the MOU on May 17th, 2010 in Hong Kong
