

Emergency Preparedness Presentation

Are you prepared to take care of yourself and family for 7 to 10 days following a disaster?

Join us for a free one hour presentation on how to prepare for a disaster and become more resilient.

During this interactive session we will discuss steps you can take to immediately mitigate against, and prepare for active threats and hazards in the Livermore area. We will also prepare a household emergency plan that you can take with you to help guide your actions at home.

Presented by City of Livermore's Emergency Manager Herbert Cole, CEM.

Thursday, March 15, 2018, 7 pm - 8 pm
